

MUSIC MINISTRY
GRAVES MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH/CLINTON, NC

Graves Memorial Presbyterian Church, PC(USA), is seeking an individual to direct both its adult choir and the handbell ensemble. The ideal candidate will be a practicing Christian who has a passion for liturgical worship music and loves people. Exhibiting strong leadership and organizational skills, our director will work collaboratively with our pastor, organist, and choirs to enhance worship and bring Glory to God.

The adult choir, consisting of 12-15 members, practices each Wednesday evening and participates in regular Sunday a.m. worship. In addition, the choir director is responsible for music for special services during Lent, Advent, and Christmas. (There may also be opportunities to join other local church choirs during community services.) The choir is accompanied by an organist/pianist and features a Casavant 13 rank/728 pipe organ.

The handbell ensemble is active primarily from September thru April with a weekly rehearsal, and participation in worship services spread throughout the year. Our instrumentation consists of five octaves of Schulmerich bells.

The PC(USA) is a denomination whose doors are open to all. Salary is negotiable. Come Grow in Grace with us at GMPC! To send a resume, or for more information including a full job description, please contact Bonnie Barr at carlbarr8@embarqmail.com, or call/text Amelia Surratt at 910-990-9419.

Please note that we are requesting that resumes and/or applications be submitted no later than February 15, 2025.
